This Honor is in recognition of Nicholas Joseph Hostler. Nick was a fitness enthusiast his whole life. He began his gymnastics career at Springfield Gymnastics & Aquatics Center at the age of 6. He was an extraordinarily talented gymnast, especially on the floor exercise. He competed at the national level.

After graduating from Kickapoo High School, he attended Missouri State University where he was recruited to join the cheerleading squad. He later served as a team captain. Upon graduating from MSU, Nick served as the head boys team coach for Springfield Gymnastics & Aquatics Center. He was a very gifted teacher, who was viewed as a “father figure” by his students. Nick loved coaching gymnastics, cheerleading, and CrossFit.

After many years of coaching, Nick went on to become a special education teacher with the Springfield Public Schools. Nick brought his love of fitness to his special needs students, always finding a way to include all in every activity. Nick spent his life helping others. He was known for his generosity, friendship, and dedication to his loved ones.

In establishing this Honor, Nick’s family and friends wish to recognize a dedication to fitness and helping others.

The purpose of life is to live it, to taste experience to the utmost, to reach out eagerly and without fear for newer and richer experiences.
